LIBRARY ADMINISTRATOR’S REPORT – Ed Goyda

Mr. Goyda reviewed his report with the board. He stated that State Library funding will be increasing. The county has asked for restraint in the 2017-2018 budget.

Mr. Goyda stated that the quarterly report for the Capitol Grant has been written and submitted.

Mr. Goyda mentioned the re-designing that will take place in the children’s room at the Princess Anne Branch.

Mr. Goyda stated that the library will begin recording the narrative history of Smith Island, and a discussion by the board followed.
Mr. Goyda mentioned that a new circulation system will begin to be implemented. Training for the new system, Polaris, will begin in June and July, and the new system will go live in August. This system will create a consortium among eight counties on the shore.

President Brice asked for a motion to accept the December/January written report. Motion was made by Ms. Cottman, seconded by Ms. Smith, and the report was unanimously accepted.

Crisfield Update:

Mr. Goyda stated that stone has been placed under the rest of the building and the fencing should be beginning.

Mr. Goyda has received information from Craig Williams at Becker Morgan for ways to baffle the sound in the meeting room.

Mr. Goyda stated that a monitor will be installed by the circulation desk to promote library programs. Another monitor will be installed in the Nook/Café area to promote community events.

Mr. Goyda mentioned that additional cameras will be installed to allow for better monitoring of blind areas in the library.

Mr. Goyda stated that Delaware Elevator installed a key operated device on the elevator which the staff will have to operate when a patron needs to use the elevator. There is a bell on the elevator which the patrons ring to notify the staff.

Grant Update:

Mr. Goyda mentioned that the Delmarva Education Foundation has transitioned to a perpetual fund of the Community Foundation of the Eastern Shore.

Development Committee Report

It was reported that all the bricks for the Crisfield Library have been sold.

Branch Highlights

Ms. Donoway reported that the Princess Anne Library was busy during the month of December. She mentioned that the Senior Moments program has gone over well. She reviewed the various programs that the library offered in December and January. The Play Pals program offered by the Judy Center at the library is being well attended. Ms. Donoway mentioned the changes that are taking place in the children’s room since JoAnn Price has been Youth Services Coordinator. The library took photos with Santa following the Princess Anne Christmas Parade. Ms. Donoway stated that the 5K walk/run will be happening again this year in June.
Mr. Stuckey reported that the number of visits and circulation at the Crisfield Branch continues to increase compared to the Corbin Library. The number of visits in December 2016 was 2,915 which is an increase of 1,031 at Corbin in December 2015. The number of visits in January 2017 was 3,317, which is an increase of 1,465 at Corbin in January 2016. The number of people using WiFi continues to be higher than the number of patrons using the computers. The library participated in the Crisfield Christmas Parade and photos with Santa were taken afterward. Mr. Stuckey stated that he continues to go to the nursing home monthly. The Judy Center has also been offering Play Pals at the Crisfield Library and is well attended.
