

The Somerset County Library
presents

Research the History of an Old House

Just as families have a past, old houses and properties have histories. When was the structure built? Who lived in it? And, what are its stories? This lecture introduces participants to strategies of organizing a research process, finding available records and documents, and interpreting the findings.

Friday, February 17 at 3 PM
Princess Anne Library